May Allah [swt] allow us to memorise, benefit and implement the words of the Prophet Muhammad ﷺ. O Allah, make us of those who are the People of the Qur’ān, who live by the Qur’ān, call to the Qur’ān, judge by the Qur’ān and who recite it, learn it and ponder over it night and day. O Allah let the Qur’ān be a Hujjah [proof] in our favour and not against us [ameen].

The Messenger of Allah ﷺ said, “O Muhajirun, there are five things with which you will be tested, and I seek refuge with Allah lest you live to see them: Immorality never appears among a people to such an extent that they commit it openly, but plagues and diseases that were never known among the predecessors will spread among them. They do not cheat in weights and measures but they will be stricken with famine, severe calamity and the oppression of their rulers. They do not withhold the Zakah of their wealth, but rain will be withheld.
from the sky, and were it not for the animals, no rain would fall on them. They do not break their covenant with Allah and His Messenger, but Allah will enable their enemies to overpower them and take some of what is in their hands. It is not crooked and so puts things straight. It does not deviate so as to be blamed. It’s wonders do not cease. It does not wear out with much repetition. So recite it for Allah will reward you for the recitation of every letter....” [also Abdullah ibn Masud said, ‘This Qur’ān is the Banquet of Allah. Whoever enters it is safe.’] some people to whom a letter comes from their king at night when they have no lamp. They are alarmed, not knowing what the letter contains. The metaphor of the one who knows the tafsir [explanation] is that of a man who brings them a lamp so that they can read what the letter says.”

quired knowledge and taught others, and read the Qur’an for Your sake.’ He [swt] will say, ‘You are lying. You acquired knowledge so that it would be said that you were a scholar; and you read Qur’an so that it would be said that you were a Reciter, and it was said.’ Then He will order that he be dragged on his face and thrown into the Fire.”

Chapter: The role of the Qurʾān in times of Fitnah [tribulation] and confusion

36. Ali said I heard the Messenger of Allah ﷺ says, ‘Fitnah will certainly come.’ I asked what is the way out O Messenger of Allah? He replied, ‘The Book of Allah [swt] is the way, for it contains information of what happened before you, news of what will come after you and a decision regarding matters that will occur among you....It is decisive [fasl] and not a joke [hazl]. Whoever leaves leaves it, is a tyrant and Allah [swt] will break him, and if anyone seeks guidance elsewhere [other than the Qur’ān] Allah will lead him astray. It is the rope of Allah [swt], the wise reminder, the straight path, whims would not deviate it nor the tongue become confused, and the scholars cannot be fully satisfied [i.e. still more to explore]. It is not worn down by repetition nor do its wonders ever cease……He who quotes it speaks the truth, he who acts according to it is rewarded, he who judges according to it is just, and he who invites people to it [i.e. the Qur’ān] is [himself] guided to the Straight Path….’

“O Allah, I am Your servant, son of Your servant, son of Your maidservant, my forelock is in Your hand, Your command over me is forever executed and Your decree over me is just. I ask You by every name belonging to You which You named Yourself with, or revealed in Your Book, or You taught to any of Your creation, or You have preserved in the knowledge of the unseen with You, that You make the Qur’ān the spring of my heart [i.e. make my heart flourish with the Qur’ān] and the light of my chest, and a departure for my sorrow and a release for my anxiety.”
